EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

The submission of the official certified copy of the priority document in the communication on December 3, 2004 is acknowledge.

Objections to claims 1-20 are withdrawn as the applicants have canceled the claims. The U.S.C. §112 2nd paragraph rejection of claim 1 as amended by the applicant is maintained for reasons previously stated in the previous office action mailed November 3, 2004. Corrections to the amended claims appear below to address the U.S.C. §112 2nd paragraph concern.

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 21 (new). A compound of a formula (I):

wherein

R₁ and R₂ are independently H;

B is OR₃, wherein R₃ is H or C₂₋₅ alkyl group.

Claim 22 (new). The compound of claim 21 wherein R₃ is ethyl.

In a telephone conversation on June 10, 2005, Chung Chen (#31725) stated that the applicants have accepted the examiners amendment as written above.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the compound of Formula I is an analogue of Gabapentin, known in the art for treatment of epilepsy. The compound of Formula I in the instant application share similar genus with Bryans et al (U.S. 2003/0216469 A1) but the genus of Formula I is not anticipated or suggested in the prior art.

Claims 21 and 22 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
